November 2004 – The best results in terms of pain relief, rapid reduction of swelling and local heat were with Sore No-More. It's pleasant to work with and nicely priced. It's effective for muscular pain/swelling and with both acute and chronic tendon, ligament and joint problems and can be used under wraps or neoprene for added warming when stiffness is prominent.

November 2000 – Natural is “in”, but we expect performance too. Sore No-More surpassed our expectations as a liniment and continues to do so daily in our test barns.

November 2004 – Sore No-More continues to impress us, and it's available in several forms.

SORE NO-MORE ~ DECADE OF RAVE REVIEWS!

December 1999 – Our hands-down choice as an all-purpose liniment and rub to keep on hand for old and for new problems—whether muscle, tendon, ligament or joint—is Sore No-More (Equilite).

September 2001 – Only Sore No-More worked 100% of the time in controlling heat.

December 2003 – For acute hot, swollen and painful joints we have had good results with Sore No-More, the Arnica based liniment from Equilite.

January 2009 – Herbal Sore No-More Reigns in Liniments

January 2009 - Our overall pick for safety in both acute and chronic conditions, versatility (body wash, muscles, legs, with or without wraps), pain relief, rapid inflammation control and low irritation potential is still the herbal-based Sore No-More from Equilite.

September 2007 – Of the products rated up to strong, only Sore No-More should be used with extensive massage work.

December 2007 – Repeat Product of the Year

December 1999 – We were so impressed with Sore No-More, we feel every barn should have it.
